Mayor's Message

A great deal of transportation projects are underway in our community. Current projects under construction include Pioneer Crossing, SR-92, the FrontRunner South project, and most recently 2100 North (the Utah County portion of the Mountain View Corridor). These projects will bring significant relief to our congested roads; but with that construction also comes the frustration associated with new barriers, detour signs, heavy equipment and their associating noise, and travel delays. I know UDOT and its contractors are doing what they can to build these projects as quickly and as safely as possible. Each one of us can also do our part to help, if we remember the following guidelines as we drive through these project areas:

- Slow down and drive the posted speed limit (plan ahead and give yourself extra travel time).
- If in the event you are delayed, please stay calm.
- Use an alternate route where possible.
- Keep a safe distance between you and the vehicle in front of you.
- Minimize distractions (cell phone calls, text messaging, eating, etc.)
- Stay informed and pay close attention to occasional changes in the project routes and detours.
- Obey flaggers and construction signs.

Additional care must be taken especially for those of us who live in close proximity to these construction projects. Encourage your children to avoid playing near any work zones, especially where trenches or heavy equipment are present.

To stay informed, go to the Lehi City website at www.lehi-ut.gov and connect to the project update links. You can even sign-up to receive weekly e-mail updates.

Continue to be patient and positive as we work through these transportation growing pains together. We would all do well to remember this high-growth period is temporary and the end results for our community will be well worth it!

Singin' In The Rain will run March 25 – April 10, at 7:30 nightly at the Partyland Center Theater. Hollywood, 1927: the silent-film romantic team of Don Lockwood and Lina Lamont is the toast of Tinseltown. While Lockwood and Lamont personify smoldering passions onscreen, in real life the down-to-earth Lockwood can't stand the egotistical, brainless Lina. He prefers the company of aspiring actress Kathy Selden, whom he met while escaping his screaming fans. The disastrous preview of the team's first talkie has the audience howling with derisive laughter. Tickets can be purchased online at www.lehicityarts.org.

The Lehi Chorale, under the direction of Rebecca Chock, meets each Thursday evening at 8 p.m. for rehearsal. Individuals that love to sing are invited to come participate with the different chorale groups as they prepare for various community events.

Family Fun Concert- The Lehi Silver Band and the Lehi Chorale will offer a free family concert on Saturday, March 20. Music and activities are designed to entertain and teach young audience members how to listen, identify, and appreciate the sounds, emotions and harmonies of the various musical instruments and vocal renditions. Concerts will be presented at 11 a.m. and 1 p.m. at the Lehi Arts Center.

The Granny Awards and Guys & Dolls Jr.- The Lehi Children's Musical Theatre performances of The Granny Awards (ages 4-8) and Guys & Dolls Jr (ages 9-15) will be held March 11-13 and March 27-31, respectively. Message from the Lehi Fire/EMS Department

It's almost time to "spring forward" for Daylight Savings Time. When you change your clocks this season, don't forget to change the batteries in your smoke alarm and carbon monoxide monitors. It's easy to overlook such seemingly minor tasks, but it could save your life. You may also want to take this opportunity to change the batteries in your flashlights and to replace the extra batteries in your disaster supply kits as well.

Lehi Library

To protect the Library collections and the taxpayer dollars that support the Library, beginning March 1, 2010, the Lehi City Public Library will begin using Unique Management Services to collect overdue items and fees. As part of this process, when a book becomes 30 days overdue, the Library will charge a $5 "extreme overdue" fee per item. If an account is sent to collections, an additional $10 fee will be charged to that account, in addition to the fines already accrued.

We hope this effort will ensure that Library materials are returned in a timely manner and remain available to everyone. You can check your account online at www.youseemore.com/lehi. Your card number is the account number and your password is the last four digits of the barcode. If you have any questions, please contact the Library at 801-768-7150.

Lehi City Think Green

Submitted by Susan Hayward, Waste Management of Utah

How do I properly dispose of my old TV's, computers, and other electronics? Can they go to the landfill?

If you have an old TV, computer, or monitor sitting somewhere in your basement or garage, and you're just not sure what to do with it, you're not alone. Electronic waste is the fastest growing waste stream in the world. It is estimated that approximately 235 million pounds of electronic waste is being stored by people who do not know how or where to dispose of it.

Electronics should never be taken to the landfill or put in your trash cart. They contain hazardous materials such as lead, mercury, cadmium, beryllium, and hexavalent chromium—all of which are harmful to the environment and to humans. Most of the materials in these products can be recycled and reused, saving our much needed natural resources.

Electronic scrap (TV's, monitors, computers, keyboards, mouse, printers/scanners) can be dropped at two locations close to you and will then be properly recycled by Waste Management. One is in Orem at 1177 S. 1580 W. and the other is in West Jordan at 8652 S. 4000 W.

Lehi Rippy Literacy Center

801-407-1025

The Literacy Center recently collaborated with a service project in Uganda, Africa. We donated 10 boxloads of books to Teach the Children. This organization has the goal of increasing literacy in Uganda. Nelson Mandela said, "education is the most powerful weapon you can use to change the world." We thoroughly believe this quote to be true; and know that literacy is a crucial component of basic education that opens the way for further education and development. Books expand our understandings. Children in Uganda struggle because their view, knowledge, and understanding of the world is so narrow with such a lack of books available to them. All they know is what they see, and all they see is poverty. The key to changing this is reading. We feel that advancing and supporting literacy in Uganda is pivotal to eradicating poverty and promoting development in the country. (Teach the Children founders, Dickson and Heather Senkunda)
